

San Francisco -- September 10, 2010: SINS INVALID announces the postponement of its October 8, 9, 10 shows at Theater Artaud due to health issues experienced by Artistic Director Patricia Bernes, who will take the month of October off to address these concerns. During this time, SINS INVALID staff continues to be available to answer questions or hear concerns. Leroy Moore, Community Relations Director, can be reached at leroymoore@sinsinvalid.org, or contact Truc Nguyen, Administrative Coordinator, at trucnguyen@sinsinvalid.org. The Sins Invalid Advisory Board and Program Team jointly made the difficult decision to postpone: Elaine Beale, Leroy Moore, Nomy Lamm, Patty Berne, Todd Herman, Truc Nguyen and Vanessa Huang.

While the SINS INVALID annual show, KNOTTING STORIES OVER TIME AND GEOGRAPHY, is postponed to early 2011, the company plans other upcoming events including a performance workshop on Oct 17 at the Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts, the Winter performance of the company's Artists in Residence program, and the rescheduled annual show in early 2011. Please check for updated information at www.sinsinvalid.org.

SINS INVALID deeply regrets the postponement, and wishes to thank the media and others for their understanding.

Please contact NEQA Communications for additional information.
